Dedication

To the members of the Board of Education, who have given so generously of their time to insure us a good school; who worked so hard to effect a reorganization and having accomplished it, unselfishly and graciously stepped aside that better representation might be realized; we, respectfully, dedicate the GREYHOUND of 1956.

Class History

In August of 1943, twenty-five students began thirteen years of sweat and labor. Those who started were: Lorene Albertson, Donald Anderson, Eldon Argotsinger, Carol Bauer, Richard Brown, Richard Bummer, Sharon Coleman, Neva Cross, Carole Dryden, Russell Houston, Ronald Kearnes, Delores Lambert, Marceline Malone, Patricia Mathys, Bill Miller, Mary Minor, Shirley North, Barbara Sharp, Richard Siemer, Donna Smith, Theodore Smith, Dale Tech, Carol Thomsen, Donald Thompson, and Shirley Wingrove.

In kindergarten, we learned to count monkeys and we also remember the birthday cakes Miss Agnes drew.

We enjoyed our desks in the first grade. Neva remembers the dog house under Miss Metcalf's desk very well.

We can also remember our Christmas Caperetta, about the snowflakes, in second grade.

We enjoyed our play at Thanksgiving time in the third grade. We actually felt like Pilgrims and Indians ourselves.

In fourth grade, we started Creative Arts and Geography.

In the fifth grade Kenneth Thorsen and Betty Beerman entered our group. It was always a thrill to have new pupils in our room.

We learned our permanship in the sixth grade. Ruth Herring joined us that year.

We enjoyed basketball in the seventh grade, but we also missed our recesses. It was more fun having both Miss Hoffman and Mr. Smith for teachers.

How well we remember eighth grade. The long hours of studying civics, basketball and then receiving our diplomas. What a thrill to be grown up.

In our Freshman year, we started out with seventeen students. They were: Eldon Argotsinger, Pat Head, Don Waderich, Beth Davis, Linda Wingrove, Delores Lambert, Donna Malone, George Baber, Kenneth Thorsen, Russell Houston, Ruth Herring, Neva Cross, Marceline Malone, Shirley North, Shirley Wingrove, Barbara Sharp, and Gloria Petersen. We can recall the fun of initiation and the party held in our honor that night. In our Freshman year, we had to become used to all the new students.

We lost Beth Davis, George Baber, and Russell Houston in our Sophomore year but we gained Bonnie Coleman, Diane Crandall, Mick Wolfe, Barbara McCord, and Donna Carey. We had a wiener roast and a softball game at our class party. We also remember serving at the Junior-Senior Banquet and we also recall those dancing girls in Hawaii.

Our Junior year was filled with many exciting events--ordering class rings and putting on our own banquet. We had a skating party in our Junior year, which was quite successful, but our most fun was putting on our class play, "Sing For Your Supper".

The year we shall never forget is our Senior year, when we had our pictures taken, chose our class play and picked out our announcements for graduation. Sneak Day and Vocational Guidance Day are also memorable days in our last year.

We shall never find words to thank all our grade teachers: Miss Agnes, Mrs. Metcalf, Miss Howorth, Miss Wiggins, Mrs. Ballentine, Miss Hannigan, Miss Turnland, Miss Hoofman, Mr. Smith and Mrs. Minor. We also want to thank all the teachers who have dedicated their time and effort to us during our high school years.

Of the twenty-five students who began kindergarten, sixteen are to be graduated. They are: Eldon Argotsinger, John Ballentine, Bonnie Coleman, Neva Cross, Pat Head, Tom Houston, Dale Beam, Delores Lambert, Barbara McCord, Donna Malone, Shirley North, Gloria Petersen, Barbara Sharp, Don Waderich, Linda Wingrove, and Shirley Wingrove.

CLASS POEM

Now as we are leaving,
We have some good advice;
Before you attempt to do a thing--
Think it over twice.

Don't give the teachers a hard time,
They have their troubles too--
And remember they're only trying,
To teach what they know to you.

Be sure and do your level best,
For as each new day comes,
You have a little shorter time
To prepare for life's hum-drum.

CLASS SONG

Now the time has come,
When we must say, "goodbye"
To all the halls and classrooms
Of old Dow City High.

We've all had some rough times,
But we've had a lot of fun too,
And now the thought of leaving
Makes us "kind of blue".

Now, as we go on into life,
Each in our different ways--
One thing we're sure we'll never do--
That's forget our high school days.

Last Will and Testament

Know All Men By These Present:

We, the Senior Class of 1956
Being of sound mind and memory,
To you classmen, we will to thee
Our following _____ and abilities.

Shirley Wingrove wills her baby sitting job to Joan Tech, and her Sunday mischiefs to Ella Wingrove who knows what to do with them,

Donna Malone wills her shoestrings from her tennis shoes to Freda C., her ability to go steady to Mary Lou, and her shyness to Burdette Hard.

Barbara Sharp wills her figure to Janice Kearines, her grades to Ella Jane, and her quietness to Fern Weber.

Eldon Argotsinger wills his fights with the teachers to James Brasel, all his good nights in Denison to Lloyd Birney, his nights of hard study to Gene Beam, his Government book to anyone who wants it, and his locker to the first one there.

Pat Head wills his seat in the study hall to Dick Seimer, his nights at home to Lloyd Birney, his locker to anyone who wants it, and his liking to drag race to Alvin Frazier.

Don Waderich wills his "Hot Rod" and all his drag racing to James Brasel, his nights in Denison to Alvin Frazier, his Government book and seat in study hall to Gene Beam, and all his nights of hard study at home to Jim Brown.

Delores Lambert wills her tennis shoes to anyone who is hard up enough to have them, her ability to stay away from the study hall to Judy Olson, and her ability to get in early to Pearl Putnam.

Shirley North wills her basketball shoes and locker to the first one who gets there, her Sociology book to Leora Smith who wants it, her ability to stay with one guy to Bonnie Buff, and her ability to keep out of study hall to Joan Tech.

Barbara McCoid wills her afternoon talks with patrolman Blankenbaker to Charlotte Potter, her rides to and from school with Jim Brink to Donna Williams, and her ability to keep out of work to Darrell Hard.

John Balantine wills his job of boys' student manager to Gary T., his nights spent at home to Terry Miller, his Physics book to Margaret L., and his rides in the school bus to Byron Meeves.

Gloria Petersen wills her height to Myrna Finken, her big feet to Grace Lahr, and her regular dates on Wednesday and Saturday nights to Shirley Gordon.

Neva Cross wills her quietness to Bonnie Buff and banjo eyes to Janice Kearines and Sandra Soper.

Bonnie Coleman wills her ability to pick fights on the school bus with Larry G. to Marilyn S., her short red hair to Janet Aberhart, and her big blue eyes to Dick Seimer and Jim Brink.

Linda Wingrove wills her ability to stay out of trouble to Burdette Hard, her Chemistry grades to anyone who wants them, and her basketball shoes to whomever wears them at P.T.

Dale Beam wills his height to Jack Smith and his job as bus driver to Donovan N.

Tom Houston wills his promptness to school to James Brasel and his curly hair to John North.

To you Juniors we leave:

Our brilliant knowledge of sociology,
Each worn government book,
And each long period spent with Mrs. Hendrix.

Apply these to the best of your knowledge;
Who Knows? You may go on to College!

The faculty thought we were quite the sixteen;
We're sure you Juniors know what we mean.
(If you don't, just wait and it shall be seen!)

Senior Class Prophecy

This is "Person to Person" and we are showing on television for the first time the result of a recent survey on the members of the graduating class of 1956 from DCHS. The members were contacted individually, and the first one that we visited was Don Waderich, who was always interested in cars. He is really in the business now. He has become half-owner of Ehrich's Motors because of the influence of his wife Janet.

Bonnie Coleman, who was always well-known for her dislike of teachers, has surprised us all and is now the first woman superintendent of Dow City High School.

Elton Argotsinger, was sort of a hard guy to find, but we finally located him on a small South Sea Island completing his recent survey of "Motions of the Waves!"

Delores Lambert, is the advertiser for her husband's business, The Brotherson Produce at Boyer. They are now raising a few chicks of their own.

Lyle Beam surprised us all when we found out that he was campaigning for President of the United States. From the National Pole he is the favorite.

Anna Malone, the ex-president of Standard Oil, has retired with her husband, Ralph, to their vacation resort overlooking the Pacific Ocean.

Florida Peterson whom everyone thought would be married right after school was out was deserted at the altar when Gene decided to marry his old flame. (?)

Burlara McCord has come to the conclusion that the name 'McCord' is often mis-pronounced and has changed it to Smith and her residence to Mo. Valley.

Barbara Sharp, while working in her father's cafe, met a multi-millionaire and they now are the proprietors of a night club in Las Vegas, Nevada.

John Bingham is just returning from Sweden where he won the 1965-'66 Olympics for the mile run. His success is due to the encouragement of his wife and coach, "Maggie"!

Barbara Winjro is helping her husband, Dennis Lochmiller, run his chicken farm which is located in Belltown.

Neva Cross who spent most of her time in Manila, has reached her goal. She is working as a part-time mechanic fixing Ford cars.

Linda Wingrave, who wanted to devote her life to the sick, is now working with the army and devoting her life to a Corporal, Kenneth Thorsen.

Stanley North is now operating as a singer for the famous dance band "Moonlight Serenaders", which is directed by none other than her husband, Jack Garrett.

Pat Head, who has a special interest in racing is now running a drag strip near Denison, with the help of his wife, the former Janet Malone.

Tom Houston, who is making a career of the Navy, is thinking about retiring to spend the rest of his life with his wife, Elvira and their dude ranch in Colorado.

Freshman Class News

We began our school year with twenty-four class members, but we lost one member during the year. Initiation was the most exciting part of the year, ending with a splendid party given by the Seniors. Our class has been active in various school activities. We have 7 members in band and 12 girls and boys in Glee Club. There are 14 out for basketball, 6 for baseball, and 4 of the girls are out for softball.
